Main Sponsor

Deutsche Bank Stiftung

The Deutsche Bank Stiftung gears its activities to the overall aim of developing and boosting people's long-term potential – the younger generation, in particular. The foundation initiates and supports projects that open up new realms of experience for young people and enable them to unfold their individual talents. In addition, it encourages up-and-coming artists to explore new directions and enhance their professional skills. The foundation's numerous projects contribute to the integration of immigrants and promote equal opportunities for disadvantaged groups in society. Another important function it performs is to foster cultural diversity in Germany. It is also committed to collaborating with influential partners in worldwide disaster-prevention schemes.
